What advice would you give to a 13 year old who has just started using social media?

A large green-outlined rectangle representing a smartphone. Inside, a chat interface is shown with two green speech bubbles on the left. The first bubble says "Hey!" and the second says "Have you got 3 tips for me?". To the right of these are three yellow rectangular boxes with horizontal lines, intended for writing advice. At the bottom left of the chat area is a green speech bubble containing a white thumbs-up icon. The smartphone has a small circle at the top and a larger circle at the bottom.
